Section 2. Utilization of Sick Leave with Pay.

(A) Conditions of Use. Sick leave may be taken by a Graduate Employee when they or their family member experiences a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, need for a medical diagnosis, care or treatment of mental or physical illness, injury or health condition or need for preventative care.

Sick leave may be taken within 12 months of the birth or adoption of a child. Sick leave may also be taken as bereavement within 60 days of a death of an immediate family member.

Sick leave may be taken in the event that a lawful public health authority declares an emergency relating to the Graduate Employee’s employment, their self-care, or the care of a family member.

Sick leave may be taken in the event that the Graduate Employee seeks legal services, law enforcement services, or medical treatment relating to domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking for themselves or a minor child. In these cases, victim services and home relocations may also be covered by sick leave. The Office of Equity and Inclusion, http://oregonstate.edu/oei/, provides support to those experiencing these circumstances.

(B) Definition of Family Member. “Family member” means the spouse or domestic partner of an employee, the biological, adoptive or foster parent or child of the employee, the grandparent or grandchild of the employee, the sibling of the employee, a parent-in-law of the employee, or a person with whom the employee was or is in a relationship with in the place of a parent.

(C) Requests and Recording of Sick Leave Accrual Use. The University must provide a Graduate Employee their accrued paid sick leave upon request. The graduate assistant must make a reasonable effort to use accrued sick leave in a manner which does not unduly disrupt the operation of the University. In the event that the use of leave is foreseeable, requests should be made ten (10) days in advance of the date of the expected leave and state the expected duration of the leave. In the event that the leave is not foreseeable, the graduate assistant must follow the notice requirements set forth by the supervisor and provide an estimated amount of time that leave is expected. Requests will be made in accordance with the expectations of the supervisor, and leave will be recorded in advance in cases of foreseeable leave, or immediately upon the return from leave in cases of unforeseeable leave. Leave will be recorded in the University’s on-line time and attendance system in hourly increments.

(D) Consecutive Hours of Sick Leave Use. The University may require the Graduate Employee to provide verification from a health care provider of the need for the sick leave if the employee takes more than twenty-four (24) consecutive hours, based upon a

1.0 FTE, of paid sick leave. The University shall pay any reasonable cost required for providing medical verification certification.

Section 3. Coverage for Sick Leave Use. Expectations for coverage for use of sick leave should be discussed in advance of the use of leave between the Graduate Employee and supervisor.

(A) Limitations to Require a Replacement. The University may not require the Graduate Employee to search for or find a replacement Graduate Employee when utilizing accrued sick leave or work an alternative shift or schedule to make up for the use of the sick time.

(B) Flexible Schedules. With mutual consent between the Graduate Employee and supervisor, the Graduate Employee may “flex” their schedule by working additional hours or shifts in place of using sick leave accruals.

Section 4. Application of Sick Leave to Other Leaves. Graduate Employees may be eligible for leave under multiple University policies as a student or as an employee, whether for their own medical condition or the condition of a family member. A full description of the leave policies and coverages that may apply to Graduate Employees can be found at: http://hr.oregonstate.edu/benefits/leave/family-and-medical-leave-actflma/graduate-assistantships-family-medical-leave.

Eligible leaves, including but not limited to paid sick leave under this Article, will run concurrently when coverages overlap. For each medical episode requiring leave, the employee must first utilize accrued and donated paid sick leave and then enter into unpaid leave status, until they return to work.

Section 5. Leave Donation.

(A) Graduate Employees on an active appointment may irrevocably donate up to 30 hours of accrued sick leave to other Graduate Employees on an active appointment.

(B) A Graduate Employee may receive a one (1) time donation of up to 30 hours of sick leave, either as a donation from a single employee or as a combined donation from multiple employees. The University shall not assume any tax liabilities that would otherwise accrue to the employee receiving the donation.
The Graduate Employee receiving donated leave must use the leave in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 2 (A) of this Article. If the sick leave donation recipient fails to exhaust donated leave for the purpose for which it was donated, the unused leave donations shall be returned to the donating employee(s).

(C) Applications for donated leave shall be in writing and sent to the University’s Office of Human Resources and accompanied by the treating physician’s written statement certifying that the illness of injury will continue for at least ten (10) calendar days following the projected exhaustion of accumulated leave. Donated leave may be used intermittently. In cases where a new accrual is received by the Graduate Employee during the leave period, the Graduate Employee’s accruals will be used first, prior to the use or continued use of donated leave.
