

TALKING POINTS FOR MANAGERS & SUPERVISORS

Introduce and discuss LinkedIn Learning with your teams and employees

- Encourage participation and promote informational sessions and demonstrations

Discuss why OSU is incorporating LinkedIn Learning as a resource within our professional development offerings and what's in it for them:

- Enables leaders to customize course recommendations specific to an employee or team to help them succeed in reaching their short-term and career goals.
- Assists employees in reaching their personal and professional development goals.
- Just in time training.

Explain to employees how LinkedIn Learning can contribute to their current professional development and related conversations.

Discuss LinkedIn Learning frequently in team meetings, when appropriate and related to larger team/department goals and efforts.

- How's it going?
- Who has utilized the resource?
- What have you learned?
- Do you have anything to share?
